CHICAGOS MAKE BUT ONE HIT AND ARE BLANKED.

Deviln Bats in Three Runs, and New Yorks Excel in Every Way—Brooklyns Beaten by St. Leuis—Pittsburgs Too Strong for the Bostons-Other Game Off.

The New York Nationals were easily the masters of the situation in their game with Chicago yesterday and bettered their hold on first place. The Brooklyns fell before St. Louis, as did Boston before Pittsburg. The Cincinnati-Philadelphia game was postponed on account of wet grounds. The results: New York, S: Chicago, O.

NEW YORK (N. L.), 5; CHICAGO (N. L.), 0. So badly played out is Mathewson and such pitching back number has he become that yesterday he held the Chicagos down to one seterday he held the Chicagos down to one hit and no runs. The Cubs' isolated bingle was made by Johnny Kling, nonpareil of backstops. Mathewson was equally effective with his speed and with his slow ball in superintending the culling of the emaciated hitting crop of the Cubs. Kling, who swings a bat striped like a barber pole, and just as big, made a clean ground hit, but the rest of the Chicagos could not even hit the ball hard. They were either striking out, lifting puny flies or jabbing out grounders.

The teams played with claws unsheathed, as it were. The game was scrappy and fussy and, on Chicago's part, poorly played. There was growling at the umpire in plenty and displays of feeling, fretfulness and peevishness. In the fifth inning Mertes was ordered off, the field by Umpire Zimmer for kicking on a called strike. O'Day fired McGraw off the coaching lines for objectionable coaching, and later ordered the mute, Taylor, off the coaching lines and then off the field. Why Taylor ever should have been sent up to coach is a mystery, unless by somebody with a "sense of humor." Anyway, O'Day stopped the farce comedy coaching.

Mathewson was aggrieved because called out on a strike that split the plate in half where his shirt is lettered, and scowled dreadfully at the umpire, Bresnahan stormed because a decision did not suit him and Weimer found a good deal of fault with Zimmer's decisions. it and no runs The Cubs' isolated bingle decisions.

The wind bothered the fielders, Dahlen muffing a fly for that reason and Wicker doing likewise. Gilbert, however, did good work and a good deal of it. His fielding was neat but not gaudy. Devlin did not have a chance in the field, but he was the same old demon of destructiveness with the stick and his hitting won the game. The Chicagos were unsteady and not very wide awake, and the home team outplayed them from soup to nuts.

awake, and the home team outplayed them from soup to nuts.

The only Chicagoan to reach first in the first three innings was Wicker on Dahlen's muff. In the same inning Wicker muffed Mathewson's fly, and the slip-up started the Chicagos on the road to defeat. Bresnahan advanced Mathewson to second with a clean hit to left. Browne bunted and Kling took the ball. He would have thrown Mathewson out at third, but Casey was not covering the bag. Kling, too, had waited momentarily for the ball to roll foul, and though even then he could have nipped Mathewson he was too late to get Browne at first. With the basses filled Devlin peeled off a slashing three bagger to right. Devlin scored on Mertes's out.

With two out in the sixth inning, Bresnahan lied to Slagle, who muffed. Slagle was not loing things by halves, and in trying to head aff Bresnahan at second he made a wild hrow. Bresnahan bustled around third in the error, but was caught at the plate on ones's throw in. He contended with much resticulation and perturbation that he had seen held at third while rounding that mark.
Casey's throw of Browne's grounder in the seventh inning hit the ground first but sime to Chance on an easy bound, and Chance muffed. Devlin sacrificed, and Casey threw deciann out. Browne was caught between hird and home on this play, but slid back to hird in safety because of slow handling of the ball. McCornick hit solidly to right, and Browne came through. McCormica in came through came through times the Chicagos, though man one times the Chicagos, though man one times the chicagos, though man one times the chicagos and the chicagos are the control of the chicagos and the chicagos are the chicagos are the chicagos and the chicagos are the chicago

Charley Nichols can still pitch a bit. The Brooklyns were as putty in his hands yesterday and escaped with a defeat and three hits. Brooklyn trotted out pitchers by the wholesale to check the Cardinals, but there was no victory in numbers, the Cardinals winning.

The Brooklyns scored once in the first inning on bases on balls to Sheckard and Dobbs, Lumley's sacrifice and a wild throw by Farrell. The Cardinals scored twice in the fifth on Barclay's single, Garvin's error on Farrell's bunt, Burke's safety to left and Babb's fumble. The Cardinals scored two more in the seventh on a hit by Farrell, a mun of an assist by Dobbs, a hit by Grady and an infield out. ST. LOUIS (N. L.), 4; BROOKLYN, 3.

CHICAGO (A. L.), 8; NRW YORK (A. L.), 5. CHICAGO, June 10.—Bunched hits and a couple of ludicrous errors gave the Chicagos enough runs to-day to defeat the New York Highlanders. Seven of Chicago's eight runs came round in the sixth and seventh in-nings, Wild throws by Williams and Powell nings, Wild throws by Williams and Powell being largely responsible for the scoring. White was taken out in the seventh inning, as New York showed symptoms of hitting him hard, and Owen went in. Owen was batted viciously during his short stay, but the home team had gained too large a lead upon the visitors and Owen pulled out his game. The fielding of both teams in the main was of the prettiest kind.

Doubles by Holmes and Green netted Chicago a run in the first inning. After this the White Sox did nothing till the sixth. In this inning Williams tossed an easy chance far out of Ganzel's reach, and before Powell could get the wheels working a triple by Green turned the tide of battle. In the seventh Powell threw a ball high over first and then lost control, forcing in a run. Three hits were sandwiched in and the White Sox made four runs.

New York had to fight for its runs and got them one at a time till the eighth, when Ganzel singled, McGuire doubled, and two infield plays let in two runs.

Baseball Notes. St. Louis and Brooklyn will play in Brooklyn to morrow, and there will be no game on Monday.

The two St. Louis teams each have a percentage of 400, the National League team fourth and the Browns sixth. Browns sixth.

Two major leagues mean more ball players employed, and a more widespread interest in the game throughout the country. The present prosperity and big patronage of the national game is partly due therefore to the coming into the field of the American League and its able head, Ban Johnson.

AFRICANDER SOUNDLY BEATEN STAR RUBY COLT YIELDS TO AUDI-

ENCE AND GARNISH IN HANDICAP. Sir Dixon Filly Wins It in the Last Jump by a Nosee-Gold Ten Takes the Hanover

Stakes From Gamara-Madden's Flyback Takes Two-Year-Old Handleap The racing at Gravesend yesterday was once more a source of profit to the book-makers, as four favorites, backed with conidence, were unable to deliver the goods The track had dried out under the rays of the sun, but it was still soft and holding in spots. More than 12,000 persons turned out and the speculation all the afternoon was of a lively nature.

The sensation of the day was the finish o the handicap at a mile and a quarter and, incidentally, the sound beating administered to Africander, the top weight and 4 to 5 favorite. S. S. Brown's three-year-old filly Audience, by Sir Dixon-Sally McClelland, was backed down from 5 to 2 to 9 to 5, while Brigand and Phaon went back to eights and tens respectively. The rank outsider was the Eagle Stable's three-year-old Rapallo colt Garnish, who was played down from 50 to 40 to 1 and was in receipt of twentyone from Audience. The latter also had two pounds from the favorite.

Garnish rushed away from the post at a terrific clip and passing the judges stand he had four lengths over Phaon, who led Africander, Audience and Brigand by a short margin. Going up the backstretch Garnish opened up a gap of ten lengths and was just galloping. It did not seem possible for him to be caught, even though Africander Ashworth hit Garnish over the head to keep and the Rapallo colt kept on with his tall running. Africander gave way to Audience at the last furlong pole, and the Sir Dixon filly then went after Garnish in earnest.

It was a game effort on her part and she lengths.

two-year-olds at five and a half furlongs, was confined to William Lakeland's Gold Ten, who receded from 4 to 5 to even money Dwyer's Red Friar, 3 to 1. Dazzle was slow to begin and never able to get up. Hilde-brand took Gold Ten to the front and R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s, Gamara, 20 to 1, went with her. It was a hot duel all the way down the stretch, Gold Ten drawing away at the end and winning ridden out by a length in 1:09 1-5, a new record for the race at this distance. Gamara was eight lengths before Red Friar, who, in turn, had six lengths over Dazzle.

Seymour, ruling a 3 to 1 favorite in the first race at about six furlongs, received a shipshod ride from Travers and was unable to get inside of the money. W. B. Jennings's Star Ruby filly, Letola, second in favor at 16 to 5, overhauled For Luck, backed down to sixes, on the turn and won handily by two lengths in 1:12 3-5. Lucien Appleby's Wild Thistle, a 60 to 1 shot, closed with a rush in the stretch and beat For Luck a length for the place. Soymour was two lengths away. Sydney Paget's Ormonde's Right was hot choice in the second race, at a mile and The son of Ormonde was han mered down bit with six lengths to spare in 1:51 2-5. Miss Thelma Walden Littlefield's Galore fflly, Funnyside, second in favor, went out and raced with the favorite all the way up the backstretch and hung on to the run home, when she began to be leg weary, but finished a length and a half in front of the Boston Stable's Ostrich, 40 to 1. E. R. Thomas's Stalwart, 5 to 1, was handled in poor shape by Redfern. Newton Bennington withdrew both Blandy and Waterside from the handicap for twoyear-olds at five and a half furlongs. J. L. McGinnis's Buttling was favorite at 7 to 5, backed down from 2 to 1, with John E. Madden's Flyback lowered from 3 to 1 to 5 to 2, and E. R. Thomas's Voladay going back from even to 8 to 5. It was a struggle among the three all the way, Flyback getting there by a length in 1:09, Voladay taking the place from Buttling by three parts of a length. Flyback gave three pounds to Buttling and eight to Yoladay.

Hyland, backed down to 8 to 1, won the by three lengths. Mackey Dwyer, 3 to 1 second choice, was the place horse, four lengths in front of Sir Roche, 30 to 1, who beat E. R. Thomas's Trepan, the favorite, by a head. Ella Snyder, 16 to 5, got a poor ride from Kunz, a stable boy. The time was FIRST BACE.

TO-BAY'S CARD FOR GRAVESEND. GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK Highball and Bryn Mawr will Meet in Brooklyn Derby.

The Brooklyn Jockey Club offers a card of seven races for this afternoon. The feature is the Brooklyn Derby, of $10,000, at a mile and a half, for which only four horses have been named to go. James R. Keene's Delhi, who has been coughing lately, will not go to the post, which is a matter of general regret. W. M. Sheftel's Highball and the Goughacres Stable's Bryn Mawr will meet on even terms, each carrying 118 pounds. In the Broadway Stakes, run a week ago, Highball gave Bryn Mawr twelve pounds, and the latter beat him by a narrow margin. On the strength of this performance Highball will probably carry the bulk of the money. In the Tremont Stakes for two-year-olds In the Tremont Stakes for two-year-olds, at about three quarters of a mile, Britisher, who will carry the colors of John A. Drake for the first time, looks the best, with James R. Keene's Veto next in favor. Shot Gun takes up top weight in the handicap for sprinters at about six furlongs. Pulsus, who has not started yet, receives 120 pounds, while River Pirate, also making his debut for the season, has 118. Mattle Corbett's Dazzling may go well with 116 pounds. Bardolph, Collector Jessup, Lady Amelia, John F. and New York also are entitled to consideration on recent races. The entries are as follows:

Chicago, June 10.—Fine weather, a good track and an attractive card brought a big crowd to Hariem to day. Interest centred in the second race, a six and a half furiong sprint, which produced a complete upset in the victory of Fred Cook's Fred Leppert, at 9 to 1. Emperor of India, another outsider, at 8 to 1, was second, four lengths in front of the Derby candidate, Commodore, who was out to the final ounce to beat Beau Ormonde a head for the third money. Commodore went to the post favorite at 5 to 2. The steeplechase furnished the usual number of accidents, three jockeys being thrown, but fortunately none was seriously hurt.

WHEELOOK, YEAGER AND LAN-TERMAN ONLY WINNING LAYERS. dehtenstein About Even Up. While Other Are Heavy Losers-Yeager's Operations

Cut Down-Smathers Bets $8,000 on Gold Ten-Delhi Cut of Suburban The recent reverses suffered by the booknaking fraternity have reduced the number of layers who are booking regularly nearly There were about one hundred pencillers in line on Brooklyn Handicap day but yesterday there were less than sixty ready to take a chance with the public's money. On the best of authority it is said that only three bookmakers are ahead of the game to date. They are George Wheelock, president of the Metropolitan Turf Associa-tion, Joe Yeager and his associate, Frank Lanterman. Sol Lichtenstein, one of the biggest layers, stands almost even up. He was $30,000 winner at the end of the Morris Park meeting, but since coming to Gravesend he has lost close to $27,000. At the end of the first week of the present meeting Dan Donnelly, it is said, was a loser to the extent of $60,000, while Leo Swatts was $30,000 to the ad and Bill Jackman was $20,000 in the hole in the same length of time. Beverly is another heavy loser, while others have pulled up stakes and are looking for new bank rolls. Joe Yeager did not indulge in the usual spectacular plunging yesterday, which served to confirm the report that he had received a tip to go at a slower pace than formerly.

He went wrong in the Hanover Stakes, when he laid against Gold Ten, the favorite, quoting the top price, 6 to 5, and bet $2,000 on Red Friar. This was a strange proceeding, inasmuch as his jockey, Hildebrand, rode Gold Ten and handled her in perfect style. Yeager did not play the fourth race, but was satisfied to lay against Africander, at the same time holding Audience tight. He bet $2,000 on Mackey Dwyer in the fifth race, most of the money going on straight, but he got back his losses on the day by backing Flyback in the last race, Hildebrand having the leg up. Big money was taken out of the ring on the success of Hyland in the fifth race. The colt worked a mile in 1:42 and was backed from 20 to 1 down to eights. Ed Stutte, who is identified with Yeager, played this good thing for a bunch, but whether it was Yeager's money or not could not be learned. Joe Haynan, too, backed Hyland with every book that would take $100 straight and $100 to

E. E. Smathers made the largest wager on Gold Ten, the winner of the Hanover Stakes. He got $8,000 on at 4 to 5, the price going up a few moments later when Red Friar was backed down. Dave Johnson dropped a big commission on Africander, but he was not the only one to be disappointed by the Star Ruby colt, for the Dwyers and their friends played him liberally. E. R. Thomas lost heavily on all three of his horses. Stalwart, Trepan and Voladay, while John E. Madden had a good wager on Flyback. W. B. Jennings feels sure that Proper who ran such a good race in the Brooklyn, will win the Surburban Handicap. He said yesterday that he would wager $500 against $7,500 on this proposition, but that O'Leary had wired him that he would not quote more than 12 to 1 against the Prestonpans fouryear-old. Jennings will wait until the day of the race with the hope that he can secure 15 to 1 for his money. Keene's Delhi, who will not go in to-day's Derby, will also be declared from the Suburban, but will be pointed for the $20,000 Tidal Stakes, to be run a few days after the big Sheepshead Bay handicap, in which he will meet horses of his own age with stake weight. This decision leaves George Odom without an engagement for the Suburban, but he will probably be snapped up without

P. J. Dwyer, John J. Ryan and R. T. Wilson, Jr., filed claims for Andrew Miller's Dazzle, by Kingston—Lady Gay, for $3,580. Mr. Dwyer got the colt and he will probably turn thim over to Mr. Miller again. The winners of the Hanover since 1895 are Brisk, St. Bar-tholomew, Demagogue, Autumn, Maribert, Fake, Francesco, Plater and Luminosity. Previous to 1898 the distance was four furongs; from 1898 to 1902 it was five furlongs, and afterward it was changed to five and a half furlongs.

M. Murphy, the Philadelphia turfman, has decided to sell out his entire racing stable next Tuesday and Wednesday. Mr. Murphy will not race again this year, but he has a number of yearlings who will carry his colors ext season.

John J. Ryan shipped seven horses to Buffalo yesterday in the care of Ed Burcell. Cormack will resume riding on Monday and has accepted the offer to take the mount Fair Handicap.

Algernon Daingerfield, assistant secretary of the Jockey Club, arrived here from Buffalo resterday. He says that the attendance s about the same as last year, but that so far here has been a scarcity of horses, owing to he meetings at Hamilton, Ont., and Latonia. "Curley" Brown got here yesterday and sava that the new racetrack now building at New Orleans will be completed by Oct. 15. He declares that he has practically received assurance that there will be a division of the assurance that there will be a division of the racing dates in the Crescent City next winter, each track having fifty days.

"Father Bill" Daly's concert for charity at the Brighton Beach Music Hall on Thursday night was a success. "Father Bill" sang three times and was uproariously applauded. He was by no means the worse for his efforte yesterday and was chaffed good naturedly y his friends.

"Lucky Jack" McGinnis, and about ever

Brooklyn politician of any account, got ready to put a kink in the books with Buttling in the last race. This is the colt that won the other day at 60 to 1, his owner, McGinnis, cleaning up $14,000. He opened at 2 to 1 and thousands went on in all parts of the ring. Burns got the rail with him in the stretch and put him under the whip, but he could not take the trick. Hildebrand's handling of Flyback was a grand piece of

Mike McDonald, a horse dealer, is the owner of Garnish, who came within a few inches of winning the handicap at 40 to 1. McDonald played the colt place and show, while the long shot players took him straight on general principles, and yelled themselves hoarse until Audience nipped him on the post. That Africander is far from being right was the opinion of the sharps after his ignominious defeat. He went to the post sore in front stride. Newton Bennington's For Luck was backed down from 8 to 1 to sixes, but she was clearly short of work. Flammula went back in the betting after opening equal favorite with Seymour and Letols, and she ran as the

The first match out in the morning resulted in a splendid finish It was between Carnegie and the schoolboy Dwight Partridge. The turn. He came home in 37, a 75 for the round, but Carnegie did as fine work on the in-holes, and the two were all square on the home green. Carnegie then won out on the second extra hole. Knapp was also in the scoring vein, for, going out in 42, he had Brandreth 3 down, and starting the in-holes with 4, 4, 2, 4, 4 Knapp had the match by 6 and 4. He finished out for the score in 5, 4, 4, 4, a 35 for the homeward trip. Ballou of the Vice-President's cup set made a 78 in the morning. In the rain on Thursday the low score cup in the rain on Thursday the low score cup in the qualifying round was won by Morse, with 79, the general improvement yesterday showing how nicely the course had dried out. In the semi-final for the President's cup, going out in 4? each, Carnegie was one up over Knapp, and after a close contest back in fine golf, the respective cards being 37 and 38, Carnegie won by 2 and 1. The full card was:

WHITE OPEN CHAMPION.

Wins Golf Honors at Sandwich With Lowest Score on Record.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

LONDON, June 10.—Jack White, a professional of the Sunningdale Golf Club, Berks, won the open golf championship at Sandwich to-day with a score of 296, the lowest on record. White did the last round in 69, the lowest ever made in a championship tournament. By a strange coincidence, a 69 was also scored by James Braid, a former core champion in the third round to-day. open champion, in the third round to-day. This score advanced Braid to the lead, the aggregate scores at the end of the third round being as follows: Braid, 226; White, 227; Harry Vardon, 228; Tom Vardon, 229. The final scores of other contestants follow Braid, 297; J. H. Taylor, 297; Tom Vardon, 301; Harry Vardon, 302; J. Sherlock, 300.

White is a Scotchman and first became prominent in the open championship of 1898, the last played at Sandwich before the present event, when he was second to Harry Vardon, the scores of the two being 312 and 315. White was fourth in the open of 1900; sixth in 1901; unplaced in 1902, Herd's year, when he finished in eighteenth place with 325, after a 75 in the first round, and third last year at Prestwick, the best scores being Harry Vardon, 300; Tom Vardon, 308, and White, 308. The Western open championship of 1902 was won by Will Anderson in 299, which, with the score made by White, marks the only times 300 has been beaten in an open championship, here or abroad.

LORENA'S ROUGH TRIP.

Amzi L. Harber's Yacht Arrives From England-Satior Washed Overboard. The steam yacht Lorena, owned by Amzi L Barber, arrived here yesterday from England by way of Halifax. She steamed down the by way of Hallax. She steamed down the East River at 1 o'clock in the afternoon and attracted lots of attention. Over her taff-rail flew the blue British ensign. The Lorena is a vessel of 2,100 tons and is fitted with turbine engines, which worked very satisfactorily on the voyage across. Owing to the rough weather the yacht experienced it was impossible to drive her much, and for a large part of the journey only two boilers were used. With these she made 11 to 12 knots an hour, and with four boilers 11 to 12 knots an hour, and with four boilers working she can make more than 18 knots. Capt. Jones reported that the yacht experienced high head winds and seas and had to put in to Halifax for coal. About midocean Arthur Ferris of Falmouth, England, was washed overboard and lost. Capt. Jones said that the yacht was a fine sea boat, very steady, and there was no vibration from her engines. She carries a crew of 40 men. The yacht showed some of the effects of the weather she had been through. Paint was washed off the hull, particularly along the water line. She is a graceful-looking boat, with clipper bow, and is high-sided.

Team. BALTIMORE, Md., June 10 .- In a cold and driving rain and on a field of mud, the Johns Hopkins and the Toronto University lacrosse teams played a game to-day that was brilliant, despite all obstacles. The Hopkins men won a notable victory by the score of 7 to 3. It was team work and greater skill in throwing and shooting that won for the Hopkinsians, though the Canadians did some remarkably brilliant individual work.
